

FWC Employee Policy Handbook

Version 1.0

This Employee Policy Handbook provides general guidelines for employees of FWC. It is designed for an IT consulting, staffing, cloud, cybersecurity, AI, and digital transformation organization. The handbook should be reviewed and approved by company management and legal counsel before official adoption.

1. Company Overview

FWC is a technology consulting and staffing organization focused on digital transformation, cloud computing, cybersecurity, AI, automation, and professional services.

2. Code of Conduct

Employees shall maintain professionalism, integrity, honesty, respect, and compliance with all applicable laws and company policies.

3. Equal Employment Opportunity

FWC provides equal employment opportunities without discrimination based on legally protected characteristics.

4. Working Hours & Attendance

Employees are expected to maintain regular attendance, record work hours accurately, and notify managers regarding leave or delays.

5. Remote & Hybrid Work

Remote work may be permitted based on business requirements. Employees must maintain productivity, confidentiality, and information security.

6. Information Security

All employees must protect company data, client information, passwords, devices, and intellectual property.

7. Acceptable Use of Technology

Company systems, networks, software, and communication tools must be used responsibly and for authorized business purposes.

8. Confidentiality & NDA

Employees must not disclose confidential company, client, or partner information during or after employment.

9. Leave Policy

Annual leave, sick leave, public holidays, and other leave categories shall be administered according to company policy and local laws.

10. Workplace Harassment

FWC maintains a zero-tolerance approach toward harassment, discrimination, bullying, retaliation, or misconduct.

11. Performance Management

Employees will receive periodic feedback, goal reviews, and performance evaluations.

12. Learning & Development

Employees are encouraged to participate in training, certifications, and professional development programs.

13. Health & Safety

Employees must follow workplace safety practices and immediately report unsafe conditions.

14. Conflict of Interest

Employees must avoid situations that create actual or perceived conflicts between personal and company interests.

15. Disciplinary Actions

Policy violations may result in counseling, warnings, suspension, or termination depending on severity.

16. Separation of Employment

Employees leaving the organization must return company property and complete required exit procedures.

17. Acknowledgment

Employees are expected to read, understand, and comply with this handbook.
